F. STARON

Deputy District Attorney, Ariadne Symons, pulled his file and Robert Taylor's conviction reads as follows:

One count felony child molestation; one count minor child molestation and one count oral copulation with a minor. He is now serving six months in prison to be followed by five years probation with the stipulation that he stay away from all children under 18 years of age. He is currently registered with the BSA; however he was registered with Troop 581.
